"‘Aha ‘Aina Wai Maka: Feast of Tears"

Sunday, November 2, 2025
All Saints Sunday

*"So then you are no longer strangers and aliens,
but you are citizens of the household of God,
built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets,
Christ Jesus himself the cornerstone.*

*In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord;
in whom you are also built together spiritually
into a dwelling place for God."*

Ephesians 2:19-22

"Aha 'Aina Wai Maka: Feast of Tears"
Sunday, November 2, 2025

"Aha 'Aina Wai Maka: Feast of Tears" was traditionally celebrated in ancient Hawai'i to mark the first anniversary of a person's death. It was the understanding of our kūpuna that tears were initially shed because of the loss of a loved one. The "Aha 'Aina Wai Maka" was seen as a happy occasion, a time when death was accepted by the family.

We remember family members and friends who died in the past year. We also remember those who died and for whom a memorial service was held at Keawala'i or those who have yet to be honored in our Feast of Tears from previous years.

We can remember those buried on the grounds of the church and those who have died and are now inurned in Pō 'aialoha, our columbarium, or who have had their ashes scattered at sea and now have a plaque at the base of the columbarium.
